Young Professionals Convene to Support Families of Seriously Ill Children

Hundreds team up to develop a community of philanthropy over beer, local cuisine, and fun and games.

Portland, OR, (August 27, 2018) – Friends of the House, Ronald McDonald House Charities of Oregon & SW Washington young professionals group, will be gathering at our 3rd annual House Party on September 8, 2018 at Lagunitas Community Room in NE Portland. With over 150 young professionals from the Portland Metro Area attending, the House Party will be a lively event where young members of the Ronald McDonald House community participate in a raffle, enjoy exceptional beer, food, and more! Media is invited to attend the event and connect with Portland's emerging leaders.

"The Friends of the House is a compassionate group of community leaders who are committed to helping families when they need it most." Said Lily McFadden, Community Engagement Manager of Ronald McDonald House Charities of Oregon & SW Washington. "The funds raised at this event help to ensure that RMHC is able to provide a "home away from home" for families who are traveling to receive care for their seriously ill, or seriously injured, child. Join us for an evening of games, drinks, and fun to help families focus on what matters most in their time of need."

What:

The 3rd annual House Party is a fun networking and fundraising event for the Portland's young professionals that are supporters of the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Oregon & SW Washington mission. The House Party would not be possible without the support of some of the west coast's most iconic businesses and vendors: Marquis Companies, McGriff, Seibels & Williams, Inc., Rock Creek Realty Group, Lagunitas Brewery, Sizzle Pie, Noho's Hawaiian Café, Por Que No, and Sivalai Thai Restaurant.
